The combination contemplated under the scheme has been approved by Competition Commission of India on November 20, 2020. Further stock exchanges have issued observation letter without any adverse observation on January 20, 2021. Pursuant to this the scheme application has been filed with National Company Law Tribunal Mumbai (NCLT) on January 26, 2021 for convening the meeting of the Shareholders and Creditors of the Transferor Companies and Transferee Company. - (c) that Amazon's representations to various regulatory authorities amounted to unlawful interference with the Scheme and a civil wrong actionable by both FRL and Reliance in case they suffer any loss and
- (d) no injunction was granted and all the Statutory Authorities were directed to take the decision on the objections in accordance with the law.

The Hon'ble Court also prima facie held that conflation of the two shareholders agreements will be in violation of FEMA FDI Rules. An Appeal was preferred by Amazon against certain observations contained in this Judgment

In another application of Amazon under section 17(2) of Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 ("the Act") to enforce EA Order, Hon'ble Delhi High Court vide its interim order dated February 2, 2021 directed the parties to maintain status quo ("Status Quo Order"), further on March 18, 2021 a detailed order was passed by the Single Judge of the High Court ("Detailed Order") inter alia confirming the directions in the Status Quo Order, granting further reliefs in favour of Amazon, and inter alia restricting all respondents from taking any further action in violation of the EA Order. FRL has filed, appeals against both the above orders, before the Hon'ble Division Bench and has obtained a stay on the Status Quo Order and the Detailed Order by orders dated February 08, 2021 and March 22, 2021 respectively. Amazon has filed special leave petitions against both the above order of the Hon'ble Division Bench and the Hon'ble Supreme Court after hearing both sides have on August 6, 2021 has held that the EA order is an order under section 17(1) of the Act.
